Before the court is plaintiffs' request for court intervention (Document #192) to resolve a dispute with Nova over the scope of the protective order. Nova has responded by

1 letter dated April 12, 2006. I see no need for further 2 briefing or argument. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that either the 3 protective order is amended by the inclusion of Paragraph 25
4 in its entirety, including the language at the top of Page 2
5 of Document #192, or the parties act in accordance with the 6 existing protective order. It does not appear unreasonable
7 for plaintiffs to obtain Nova's consent before Nova's Highly 8 Confidential information is produced in litigation other than 9 that to which Nova is a party.
